

CODE Members' Charter

Member practices are committed to providing a high standard of dental treatment in a safe and caring environment;

- Member practices are committed to following the latest regulations, legislation and guidelines including those for infection prevention and control and to this end members also adopt the CODE Patient Safety Charter;
- Member practices have policies and procedures that their team follow to ensure that high standards of care can be maintained;
- Member practices are equal opportunity employers and are committed to encouraging equality, diversity and personal growth in the dental team; and
- Member practices are committed to contributing to the knowledge, skills and positive public perception of the dental profession.

Our practice is delighted to follow the CODE Members' Charter.

John McCourt and Andy Tannahill

The Practice Owners.

Terms of use: information in templates, modules, CODE and iComply is written in general terms and is believed to be based on the relevant legislation, regulations and good practice guidance. This information is indicative only and is intended as a guide for you to review and take particular professional advice to suit your circumstances. CODE is a trading name of the Confederation of Dental Employers Ltd and it licenses information to CODEplan Ltd. CODE and CODEplan do not accept any liability for any loss or claim that may arise from reliance on information provided. The use of this document indicates acceptance of these terms.
©CODE 2017.